

THE DAILY STAR

MINOR LOCAL MENTIONS.

The German Pioneers enjoyed a pleasant meeting yesterday in reorganizing their society, and the election of new officers.

John Grohne reports the loss of his gold watch and chain and a diamond pin, which were stolen from his room night before last.

The alarm of fire from Box 58, last evening, was caused by the burning of some straw in an empty freight car on the O. & N. Railroad, near Wood street.

Caroline Blumenfeld, a minor by her next friend, Max Blumenfeld, brought suit in the Superior Court this afternoon against J. A. Kohner, to recover $5,000 damages alleged to have been sustained by a fall into the cellar of Kohner's premises on Fifth street.

The Board of Fire Commissioners met yesterday afternoon, and about the only business transacted was the approval of bills amounting to $3,652.17. The building of an engine-house on the Harrison Pike, near Herancon's brewery, was discussed, but no action taken in the matter.

The Coroner rendered the following verdict in the case of the unknown infant found dead in the rear of 307 Linn street Wednesday: Death from hemorrhage, caused by the criminal neglect of the mother or attendants, in not ligaturing the umbilical cord, and giving the child proper attention.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the Recorder's office by the Twenty-fifth Ward Loan and Building Association. The capital stock—$500,000—is divided into one thousand equal shares of $500 each. The incorporators are Jacob Koch, H. E. Richter, Matt. Fela, George Elissner, H. Loesch, Frederick Branchmann and Philip Mebert.

Wm. McClennan, a man employed at the Robinson Wagon Works on Carr street, had the third and fourth fingers of his left hand and all the left part of the hand torn off by a riving machine yesterday. Dr. Brown attended his injuries, and probably can save the first and second fingers and the thumb, although they are badly bruised and crushed.

Mr. W. Haas, the grocer at No. 621 Byamore street, was badly hurt yesterday afternoon in attempting to get on a scaffold. When near the top of the ladder one of the planks gave way, causing him to fall on the bare joists and seriously injuring him. He was removed to his residence and was attended by Dr. Miles, who could not determine whether there were internal injuries or not.

In erecting telegraph poles on Mt. Auburn recently, the beautiful shade trees on Auburn street were badly mutilated by the gang of laborers. The citizens along the thoroughfare became indignant and held a meeting last night for the purpose of taking some action to prevent further mutilation. The matter was discussed at length, and finally referred to a committee to confer with the company erecting the poles.

The garden party last night under the patronage of the Ladies' Society of the Church of the Advent was well attended. Currier's Band discoursed the music, and the gay assemblage betook themselves to social enjoyment, and the discussion of a rich and delicate menu. At half past 10 o'clock most of the company had dispersed, though a number lingered to a later hour, unwilling to leave the fairy scene. Throughout the gay assemblage the most enjoyable hilarity prevailed.

Stricken Down by Yellow Fever. The Pacific Mail steamship Colon is at quarantine at New York on account of the prevalence of yellow fever on board. Mr. Eugene F. Stroebel, a Cincinnati, and a passenger was taken with the yellow fever a few days ago. He was removed to the hospital on Wednesday morning and died that evening. Mr. Stroebel had been on the boat eighteen months.

Wesleyan College. The Alumni Association of the Wesleyan College for Women held its annual anniversary yesterday. Five or six hours were given up to the exercises, which, following the custom, were divided into three parts—the literary exercises in the forenoon, then the reunion dinner, and then the business meeting at which the new members of the graduating class were received.

The entertainment was one that could not be surpassed in its choice for literary and fine musical selections.

A Lively Dead Horse. About three years ago William Hagerty, a hackman, sent out one of his horses to Harbrook's pasture on the Warsaw Pike. When he called for the same, he, as he alleged, was told that the equine had died. Hagerty went away under the impression that the horse was dead, but now he says that he has found the "dead" animal alive and doing big work for an expressman. He had the horse and driver, Theodore Haverman, taken before Judge Gilliland this morning for a hearing of the case. The trial is to establish the ownership of the animal in progress.

Marietta College. The commencement exercises of the Marietta College will be held June 20th. The addresses before the Society of Inquiry will be delivered by Rev. James Kells, D.D., of Lane Seminary, Sunday evening, June 18th, and the oration before the Literary Societies on Tuesday, June 20th, by Hon. Samuel F. Hunt, of Cincinnati. Professor W. G. Ballentine (class of 1868), of Oberlin Theological Seminary, will give the oration, and James M. Rees, Esq., of Ballou, (class of 1868), the poem, before the Alumni, Tuesday, at 11 a. m. The baccalaureate discourse, by President Andrews, on Saturday afternoon. The Alumni dine together on Tuesday after the public exercises.

How He Saved His Son. Israel Jones, of Franklin Station, Ohio, has a son whom the doctors had given up with diabetes. He applied a Day's Kidney Pills, when he commenced to improve and is now able to get out and attend to his work.

Professor Green, allopathic physician, writes "Medical Record, Atlanta, that Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, has cured serious cases of Bright's disease."

ROBERT BAIKES CENTENNIAL.

Programme of the Exercises at Music Hall To-morrow.

Everything has been completed for the Baik's Sunday-school celebration, to be held in Music Hall next Saturday. There will be a general rehearsal this afternoon at 4:30 of the Great Organ Orchestra of the schools. A meeting of the committee will also be held at Music Hall.

The following is the order of exercises: Overture.....By Organ and Orchestra. Hymn.....Rev. Dr. Errett Ryan.

Bible Responsive Reading.....Rev. Thomas Lee. Leader.—For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given. Isa. ix, 6.

Response.—And thou shalt call his name Jesus, for He shall save His people from their sins. Matt. i, 21.

Leader.—Flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word. Matt. ii, 13.

Response.—Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy (xxxi, 16).

Leader.—And I, a voice from heaven saying: This is my beloved son in whom I am well pleased. Matt. iii, 17.

Response.—I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance, but He that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire. Matt. iii, 2.

Leader.—Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. Matt. iv, 1.

Response.—For in that He himself hath suffered, being tempted, He is able to succor them that are tempted. Heb. ii, 16.

Leader.—Ye are the light of the world. Matt. v, 14.

Response.—Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Matt. v, 16.

Leader.—Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts. Psalm li, 6.

Response.—For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the Scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven. Matt. v, 20.

Leader.—Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect. Matt. v, 48.

Response.—But I say unto you, love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you. Matt. v, 44.

Leader.—When thou prayest enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. Matt. vi, 6.

Response.—When thou doest alms let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth; that thy alms may be in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. Matt. vi, 3, 4.

Leader.—Casting all your care upon Him, for He careth for you. 1st Pet. v, 7.

Response.—But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Matt. vi, 33.

Leader.—Whatever ye would that men do to you, do ye even so to them. Matt. vii, 12.

Response.—Judge not that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged; and with what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again. Matt. vii, 1, 2. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. xiv, 19.

Leader.—But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only. James i, 22.

Response.—Therefore, whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock. Matt. vii, 24.

Leader.—Take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting and drunkenness. Luke xxi, 34.

Response.—Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness; not in strife and envying. R. m. xii, 19.

Leader.—What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the seas obey Him? Matt. viii, 27.

Response.—Which by His strength setteth fast the mountains; being aided with power; which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of the waves, the tumult of the people. Ps. lxxv, 6-7.

HYMN.

Leader.—Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Matt. xi, 28.

Response.—Take my yoke upon you and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden light. Matt. xi, 29, 30.

Leader.—The harvest is the end of the world. Matt. xiii, 39.

Response.—The Son of Man shall send forth His angels, and they shall gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun of the kingdom of their Father. Matt. xiii, 41-43.

Leader.—If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me. Matt. xvi, 26.

Response.—For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Matt. xvi, 26.

Leader.—We beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. John i, 14.

Response.—While He yet spoke, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and there came a voice out of the cloud, which said: This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye Him. Matt. xiii, 17.

Leader.—But Jesus said, suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me; for of such is the Kingdom of heaven. Matt. xix, 14.

Response.—Whoever, therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the Kingdom of heaven. Matt. xviii, 4.

Leader.—As many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage. Matt. xxii, 9.

Response.—And he said unto them, go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. Matt. xvi, 15-16.

Leader.—And these shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal. Matt. xvi, 46.

Response.—When the son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory; and before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats. Matt. xxv, 31-32.

Leader.—Who His ownself bore our sins in his own body on the tree. (1st Peter ii, 24). And they crucified Him and parted His garments, casting lots. Matt. xxvii, 35.

Response.—He was wounded for our transgressions; He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him, and with His stripes we are healed. Isaiah liii, 5.

Leader.—And when they had fulfilled all that was written of Him, they took Him down from the tree, and laid Him in a sepulchre. Acts xiii, 29.

Response.—But God raised Him from the dead; and He was seen many days by them which came with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses to this day. Acts i, 30-31.

Leader.—We beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. John i, 14.

Response.—Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Isaiah li, 1.

Response.—And the spirit and the bride say come. And let him that heareth say come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. Rev. xxii, 17.

deed; and He was seen many days by them which came with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses to this day. Acts i, 30-31.

Leader.—We beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. John i, 14.

Response.—Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, which is taken up into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go into heaven. Acts i, 11.

Leader.—Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Isaiah li, 1.

Response.—And the spirit and the bride say come. And let him that heareth say come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. Rev. xxii, 17.

Dedication of the Sabbath.

The following letter has been issued by Bishop Elder:

Seeing an announcement in the daily papers of a national convention of the Catholic Uniformed Knights of America to be held in Cincinnati, and of a "Monster Picnic" to be given by them Saturday evening, the 26th inst., the undersigned judges think proper to publish the following declaration:

First.—He sees no sufficient reason favoring, and he sees serious objections opposing, the formation of a general military body, or of a body having a military appearance, as belonging exclusively to the Catholic Church in our free country, and among our friendly people, consequently he can not encourage the holding of a convention for the purpose of establishing such a body.

Secondly.—He positively disapproves of a public picnic to be held in the evening, continuing after dark, and particularly of one to be held Saturday evening, very easily leading to a desecration of the Sunday; and he recommends all Catholics not to take part in any such evening entertainment.

WILLIAM HENRY ELDER, Conductor to the Archbishop, and Administrator of the Diocese of Cincinnati. CINCINNATI, June 17, 1880.

IRON TONIC.

A Preparation of IRON and CALISAYA BARK, in combination with the Phosphates. Endorsed by the Medical Profession, and recommended by them for Dyspepsia, General Debility, Female Diseases, Want of Vitality, &c.

W. P. HILL, Crockett Station, Tenn., writes: "Dr. HARTER'S IRON TONIC has done wonders here. A lady who had been doctored nearly to death for several years, has been cured of Debility and Great Prostration by the use of Dr. HARTER'S IRON TONIC, which raised her from her bed, where she had been lying for many months."

Mr. James Brown of our county, has requested us to tender you his grateful acknowledgments for the great benefit his wife received from the use of your IRON TONIC. He tells us that, after having paid three or four hundred dollars doctors' bills, two bottles of your IRON TONIC did her more good than all other medicine she ever used. She was troubled with Derangement of the Liver, White, &c., from which she is much relieved. F. A. PATRICK & Co., CENTREVILLE, TEXAS.
